

Hi I would like to say that the XM radio is the greatest thing ever. We pay to hear what they give us so that means they pay those companies for thier services. If not for them I would be stuck in DC traffic for hours, but instead have found better routes to take. So leave them alone and worry about the terriost threats over the radio waves. Thanks a registered democrat.